EXAMINATIONS:
There are three hour-examinations plus a comprehensive final examination. THE HOUR EXAMINATIONS ARE OPTIONAL.
Each examination has a maximum of 100 points.
Questions are problem oriented and “fill in the blank”.
CALCULATORS ARE NOT ALLOWED ON EXAMINATIONS
THERE ARE NO MAKE-UP EXAMINATIONS.
NO EXAMINATION WILL BE GIVEN EARLY.

GRADING:
If you take all three hour examinations:
The lowest examination grade is dropped and the total for the semester = 0.25 x hour exam. + 0.25 x hour exam. + 0.50 x final exam, or
total for the semester = 0.17 x hour exam. + 0.17 x hour exam. + 0.66 x final exam, whichever is higher
If you take any two hour examinations the
total for the semester = 0.17 x hour exam. + 0.17 x hour exam. + 0.66 x final exam
If you take one hour examination the total for the semester = 0.17 x hour exam. + 0.83 x final exam.
If you take zero hour examinations the total for the semester = 1.00 x final exam.

Determining your letter grade.
A  >[average (av) + 1.83 x standard deviation (sd)]
A- >[av + (1.50 x sd)]
B+ >[av + (1.16 x sd)]
B  >[av + (0.83 x sd)]
B- >[av + (0.50 x sd)]
C+ >[av + (0.17 x sd)]
C  >[av - (0.17 x sd)]
C- >[av - (0.50 x sd)]
D  >[av - (1.50 x sd)]
F  <[av - (1.50 x sd)]

N.B.: Before graded examinations are returned, a number of them will be photocopied at random.
You may request re-grading of any examination, not just one question. Grading mistakes in either direction are counted; your revised score may be higher or lower.

HINTS FOR DOING WELL

• ATTEND CLASS.
• DO NOT SKIP CLASS.
• COME TO CLASS (a few minutes early).
• Do the homework.
• Keep your homework answers in a separate notebook.
• Try solving the problems before looking at the answer.
• Read the assigned material before coming to class.
• Take notes in class and re-copy them into a special notebook.
• If you need help, come to the resource center.
• Come to office hours.
• TURN OFF YOUR CELL ‘PHONE.

HINTS FOR EXAMINATIONS

• Do the homework.
• Get at least six hours of sleep the night before.
• Arrive a few minutes early.
• Stop work when the instructor says that time is up.
• Bring several pens and pencils to the examination.
• Read and follow the instructions.
• Attempt the "easy" questions first.
• Check your work.
• Read, understand, and sign the pledge (grades are not recorded unless the pledge is signed).
• When all else fails and you’re feeling low, remember that billions of people lead happy, healthy, and productive lives without knowing chemistry.

The chairman asks that the following be added to the syllabus of every chemistry course.
Policy adopted by the faculty of the Department of Chemistry on Sept. 9, 1977:
"Since all graded work (including homework to be collected quizzes, papers, mid-term examinations, final examinations, research proposals, laboratory results and reports etc.) may be used in the determination of academic progress, no collaboration on this work is permitted unless the instructor explicitly indicates that some specific degree of collaboration is allowed. This statement is not intended to discourage students from studying together or working together on assignments which are not to be collected."

During an examination, you may not look at another person’s exam; talk to anyone, either in person or by cell ‘phone or email, or use the Internet, other text or notes. You are not permitted to see other students’ exam scores or graded exams without their permission. You are not to be present without their permission if he or she is discussing his or her grades or examinations with me.
HOMEWORK QUESTIONS
Answers to the homework problems are available in the Resource Center, Kenan Labs, room C143. They are not to be removed from this room for any reason.
